

Governor's School Selected as a Virginia Naturally School
December 12, 2013

Chesapeake Bay Governor's School has been selected as one of the Virginia Naturally Schools for the 2012-2013 school year. The goal of this program, which is administered through the Virginia Department of Game and Inland Fisheries, is to recognize efforts by Virginia schools that increase the environmental awareness and stewardship of its students.

For more information about the Virginia Naturally school recognition program, please see their website at www.vanaturally.com.